Other Projects

- Spam classifier using Support Vector Machines: May 2019
In this project, a Spam Classifier is built using Support Vector Machines. A classifier is developed by training of that classifier using the dataset which is a subset of the SpamAssassin Public Corpus. Here the classifier is trained to classify whether a given mail is spam (output = 0) or non-spam (output = 1). The entire programming is done in Octave environment.

- Treasure Trove:

April 2017

In this project, we have developed three games. The first one named as Treasure Trove is a quiz game like a famous Indian Television game show. The second one is a basic shooter game where the user can shoot a target using the mouse pointer which is moving horizontally. The third game involves a vertically moving ball which must be carried to the maximum level avoiding obstacles which is moving horizontally. This whole game was developed using C++ and was coded in Turbo C++.
